

SEATTLE AREA COST vs VALUE

Up to 90.8% ROI

According to a 2018 survey of Cost versus Value done by Remodeling Magazine, replacement windows in upscale homes have up to 90.8% return on investment in the Seattle area.

If you've been considering replacement windows in your home, now might be a good time to take action. Not only will you enjoy energy savings, a beautiful new look and noise reduction while you live in your home, you may recover more than 90% of your investment when you resell your home. That's something to think about.
